PARKS & RECREATION

Town of Troy

The town of Troy borders the lower St. Croix National Scenic Riverway to the west, and is one of the western-most townships in St. Croix County, Wisconsin. Troy is located between the historic and vibrant cities of Hudson and River Falls.

Residents and visitors can enjoy the rural landscape in its local parks, which complement the town's rich agricultural tradition. Recreation in the town of Troy provides safe and active leisure opportunities for the area's diverse population.

Park areas include Cove Boat Ramp, Glover Park, Pemble's Access, and marked bike and pedestrian trails along specific town roads. The town Park Rangers and St. Croix County Sheriff's Dept. patrol the parks on a regular basis.

The Park Board's mission is to plan, acquire, develop, and maintain parkland; and, to provide the citizens of Troy with a park system for the conservation, preservation, and enjoyment of the natural environment and the recreational facilities provided.
